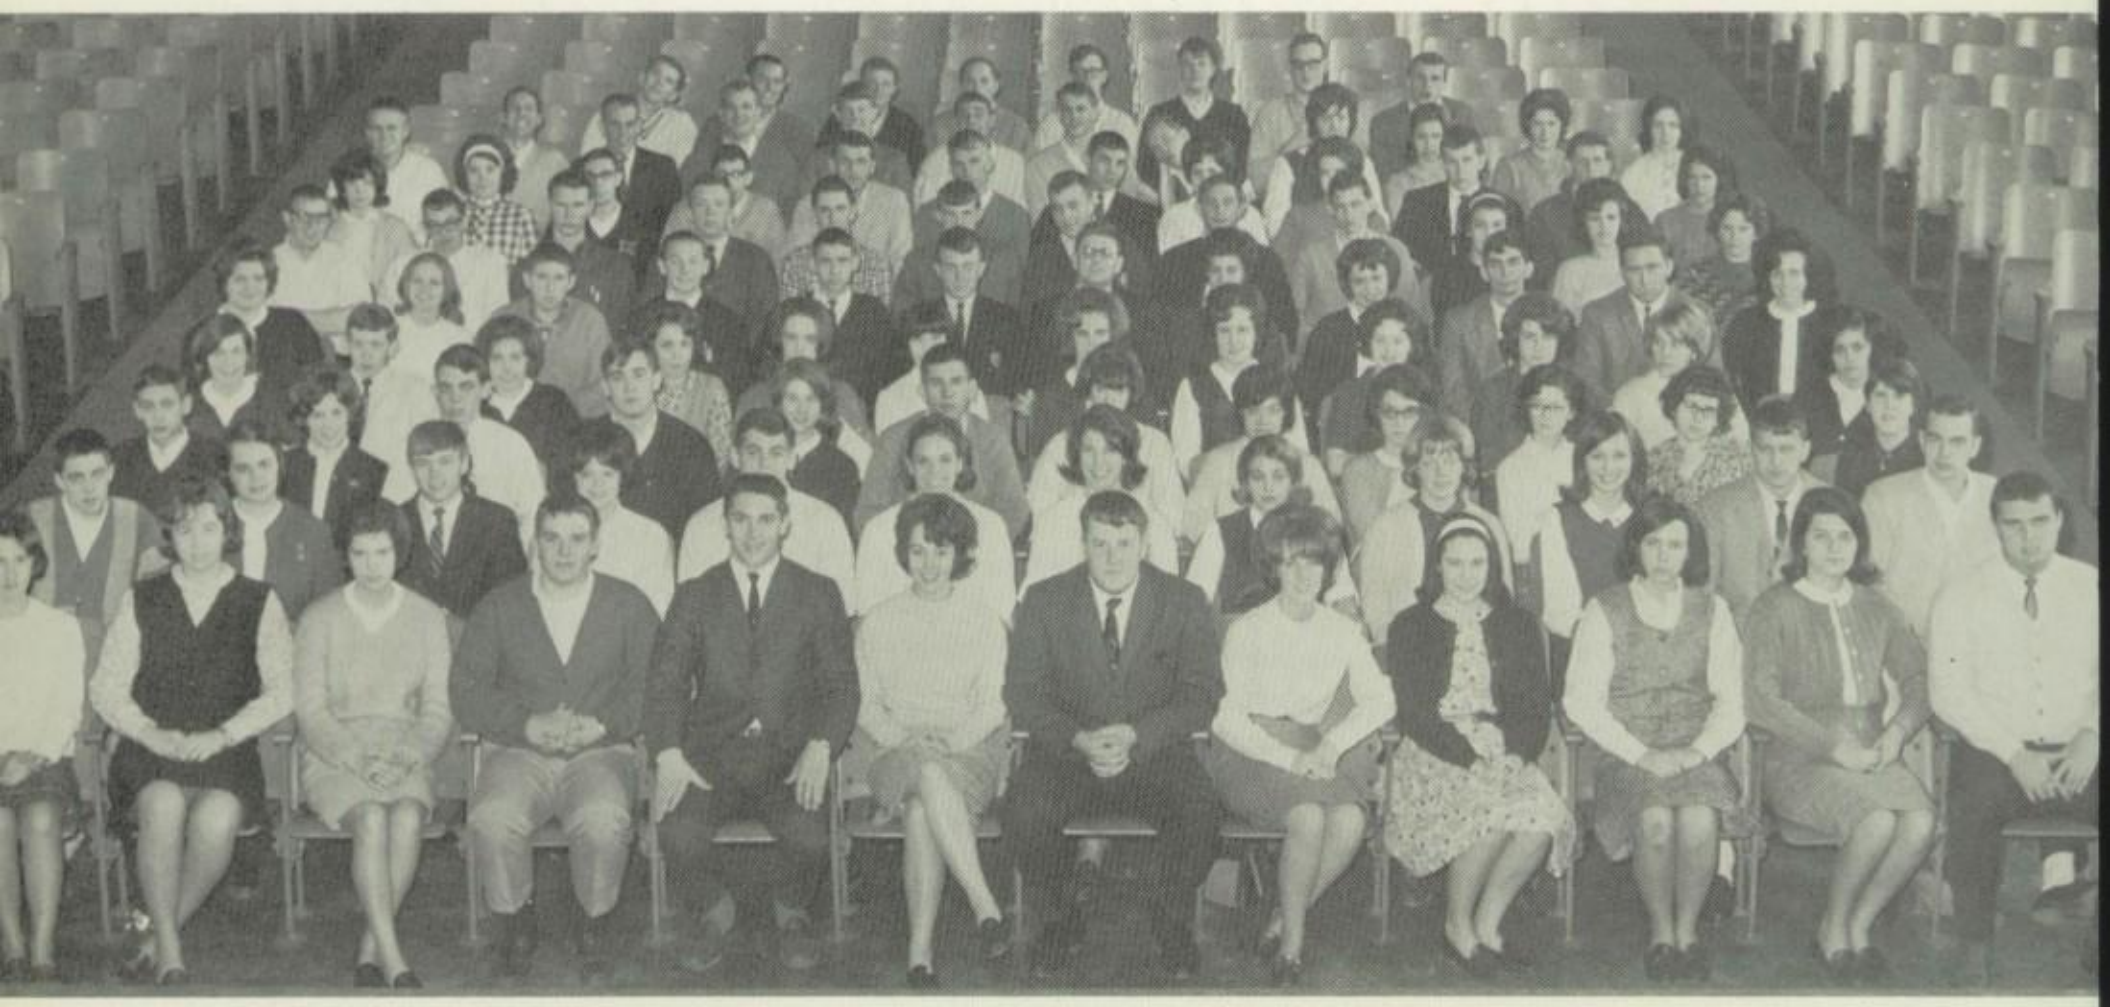
1965



Senior Class

On these pages the Class of 1965 is seen in several ways, as a whole in the class picture and at a class meeting, also as individuals on the football field and in school leading the chocolate sales. To the graduates, this year lives on in their memories as the summit of their high school career. Throughout this yearbook are pictures and sentiments meant to bring back scenes for the seniors as well as the rest of the student body.

The candidates for senior class mascot settle down long enough for a picture after causing roars of laughter with their amusing antics at the class meeting.

Bill Drumwright presides over the class meeting as the seniors discuss the Washington and New York trip.

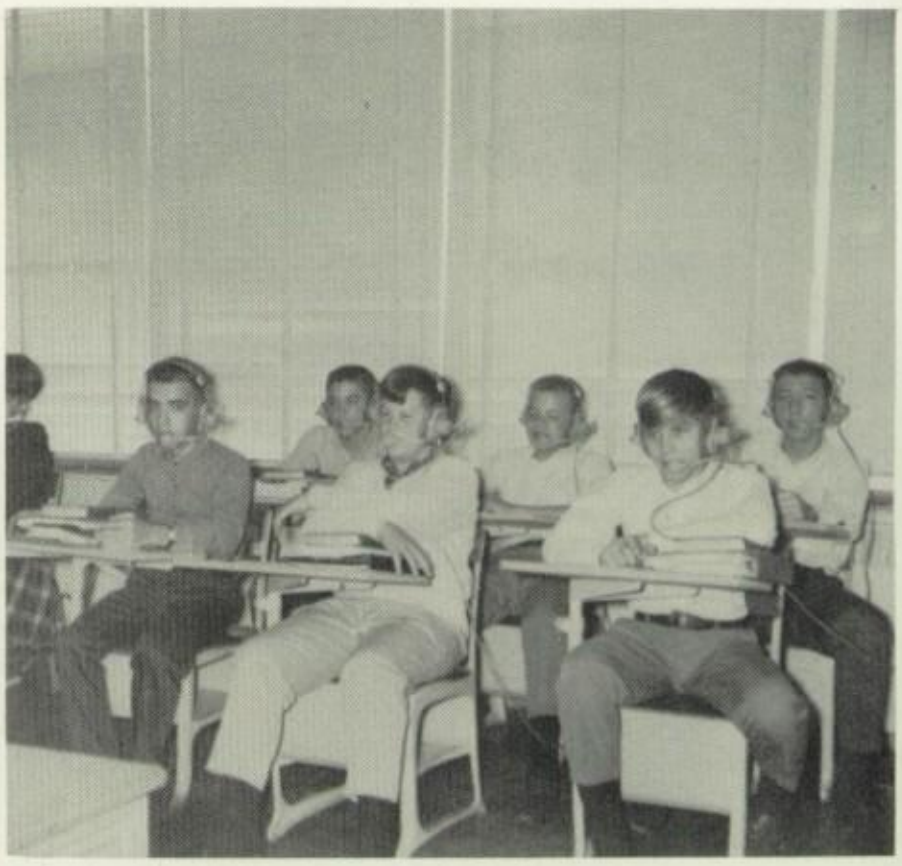
That Found

An Expanding School,

Paper Bag Lunches,

A New Cafeteria.

Pictured here are our teachers, advisors, coaches, principal, and librarian in one of their many meetings throughout the year. Most of them voluntarily sponsor projects and clubs in the school which mean extra hours of planning and meetings with the students. Without the additional interest there would be few outside functions, such as the Christmas Dance, the Miss G. H. S. Pageant, and other efforts which provide valuable scholarships given to deserving seniors by several of the school clubs.

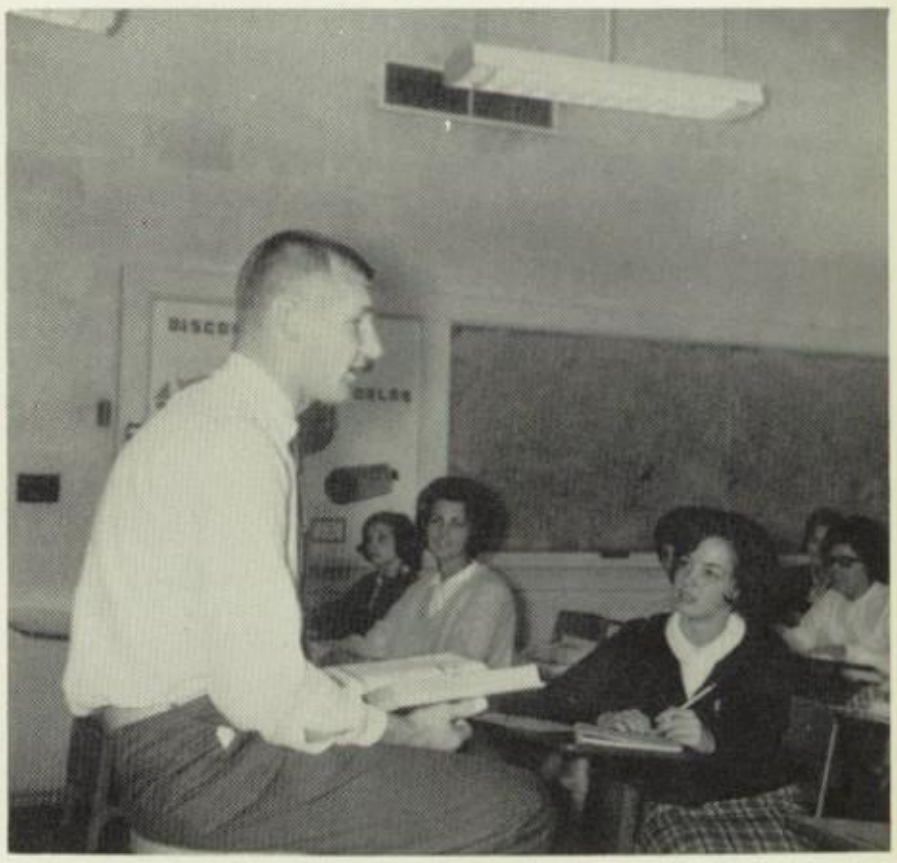


Learning holds greater fascination when we can put it to use. Dresses made in home economics class hopefully can be worn to school. Ears strain to pick up every syllable of French or Spanish coming from the language lab, and progress is measured by comprehension.

At the welcome ten-minute break in our schedule, ice cream-hungry students converge on Mrs. Burch, the cafeteria manager.

From their expressions, students here seem engrossed in their work in Mechanical Arts, a course new this year at Graham.

In a Spanish Club skit Sammy Bowland and Darrell Ellington shoot it out over the lovely Joe Burch who looks horrified.



In American history class, our photographer catches Mr. Boswell at his best angle, a profile.

Our school spirit shows itself in many ways, but certainly the band has contributed the most to our spirit. Under the direction of Mr. Johnny Albea, the progressive band has been a vital asset at football games as well as at pep rallies.

L'ENVOI

When Earth's last picture is painted, and the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colours have faded, and the youngest critic has died,
We shall rest, and, faith, we shall need it--lie down for an aeon or two,
Till the Master of All Good Workmen shall set us to work anew!

And those that were good shall be happy: they shall sit in a golden chair;
They shall splash at a ten-league canvas with brushes of comets' hair;
They shall find real saints to draw from--Magdalene, Peter, and Paul;
They shall work for an age at a sitting and never be tired at all!

And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame;
And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame;
But each for the joy of the working, and each, in his separate star,
Shall draw the Thing as he sees It for the God of Things as They Are!

Rudyard Kipling

Dedication

In appreciation for his diligent services to our school, we dedicate the 1965 WAG to Mr. Ben Hinshaw, our custodian for the past eight years.

Administration

Our principal, Mr. M. Y. Wilson guides us in every phase of our life at Graham High School---academic, extracurricular, and personal. We are challenged by the enthusiasm of Mr. Wilson to search for our own solutions and to ever broaden our knowledge.

As the peak of our high school years approaches, we look back on happenings that have made our four years at Graham High School rewarding ones. The feeling of awe as we marched into our first assembly cannot be described in words. Seeking our separate fortunes in life, we leave these halls that echoed with our joys and our sorrows, these rooms in which our hopes were born.

Now soon-too soon-our year draws to a close. Baccalaureate and Graduation await the Class of 1965.

Seniors

THOMAS ALLEN ADCOCK

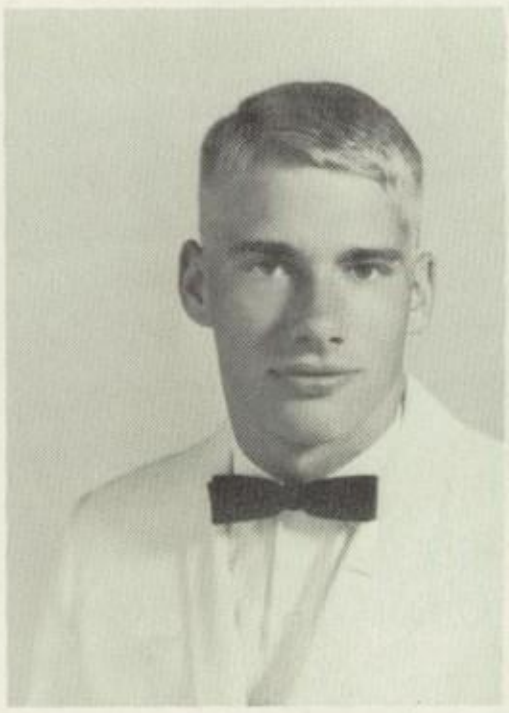
Never regret anything you do; and never do anything you will regret.

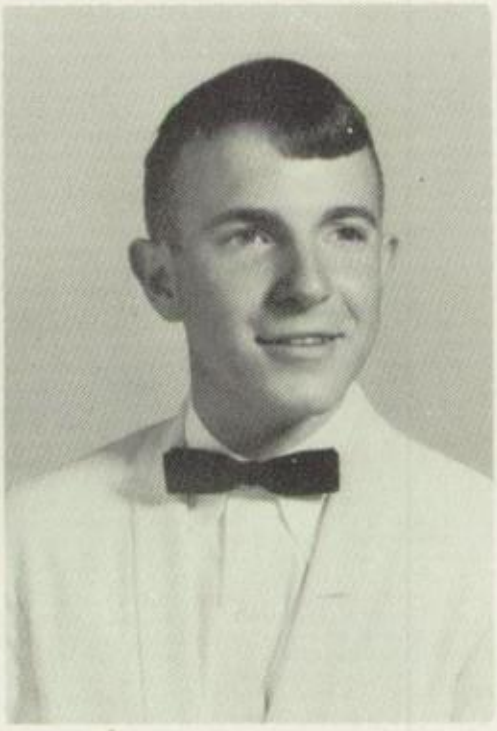
ELLA MAE ALLEN

A soft answer turneth away wrath; but grievous words stir up anger.

JUDY GALE ALLEN

It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness.





KAYE KAREN ALLISON

Give the world the best that you have and the best will come back to you.

JOYCE LYNN ANDREW

Let your smile be your umbrella and the rain of worries will not bother you.

ARTHUR LEE ANDREWS

Small deeds done are better than great deeds planned.

DENNIS GILMORE ANDREWS

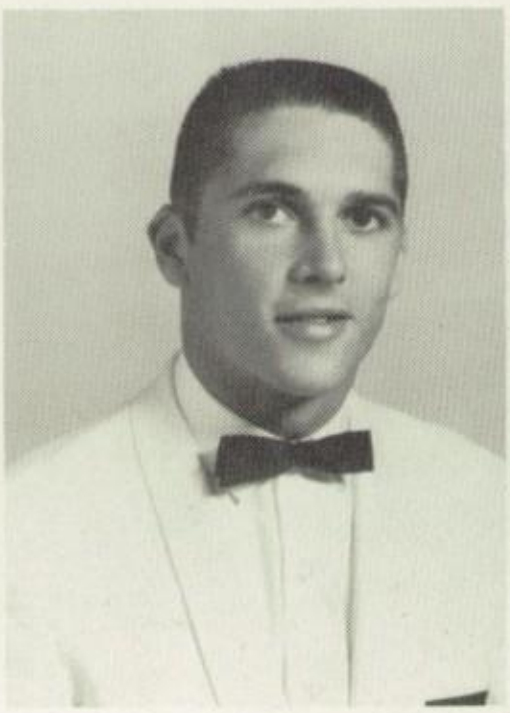
Let me so live that when I die, even the undertaker will be sorry.

SUZANNE MARIE BARVIR

What we gave, we have;
What we spent, we had;
What we left, we lost.

BEVERLY DARE BASDEN

An ounce of cheerfulness is worth a pound of sadness.



Seniors

ANTHONY JOSESPH BENESCH

Work is love made visible.

NANCY ELIZABETH BOGER

Nothing is too high to be reached, or too good to be true.

CYNTHIA JO BOSWELL

Work, play, learn, love, and be unselfish, and know enjoyment and fun in each.

LILLIAN MARIE BOWLING

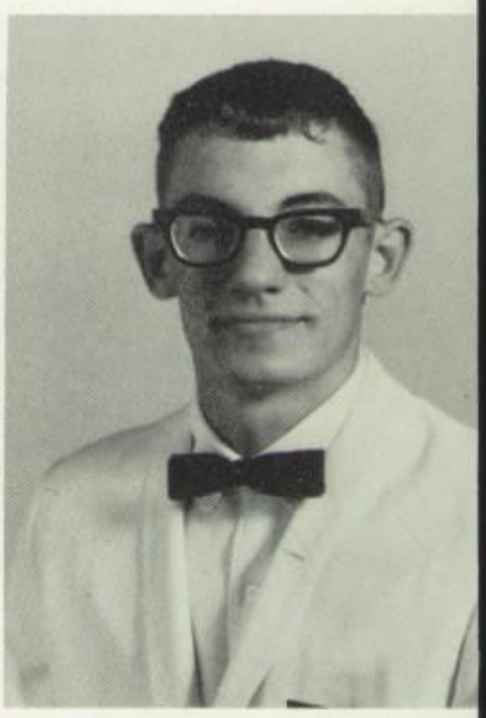
Silence accomplishes much that noise cannot.

JANICE HOLT BRAXTON

If you see someone without a smile, give him one of yours.

WAYNE NELSON BREWER

Give us the man who sings at his work.



BARBARA DIANNE BUESCHEL

Wit is the salt of conversation, not the food.

ALICE FAYE CARROLL

Where the willingness is great, the difficulties cannot be great.

JERRY ADAMS CATES

A man is a worker. If he is not that he is nothing.

Seniors

DARLENE LOLETTE CAULDER

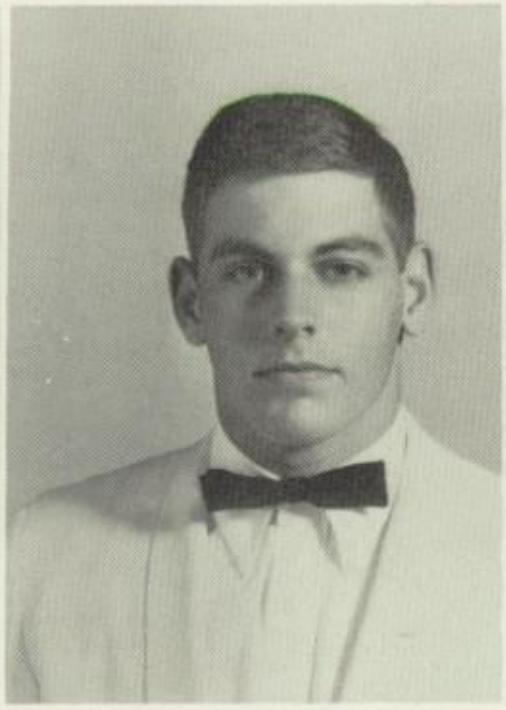
Love to one, friendship to a few, and goodwill to all. A word and a smile for everyone.

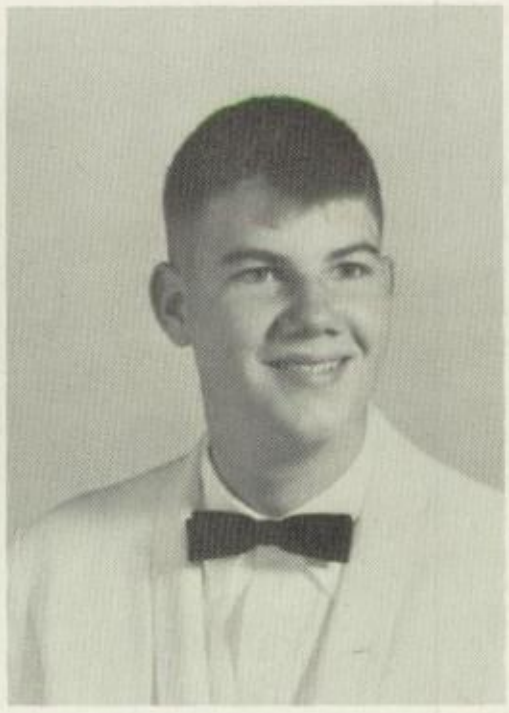
CAROLYN ANN CLARK

Why be difficult when just as easily one can be simple.

DONALD NELSON CLARK

Have a good time living 'cause you're a long time dead.





SANDRA DAWN COMER

After the verb to love, to help is the most beautiful verb in the world.

WILLIAM ROGERS COMPTON

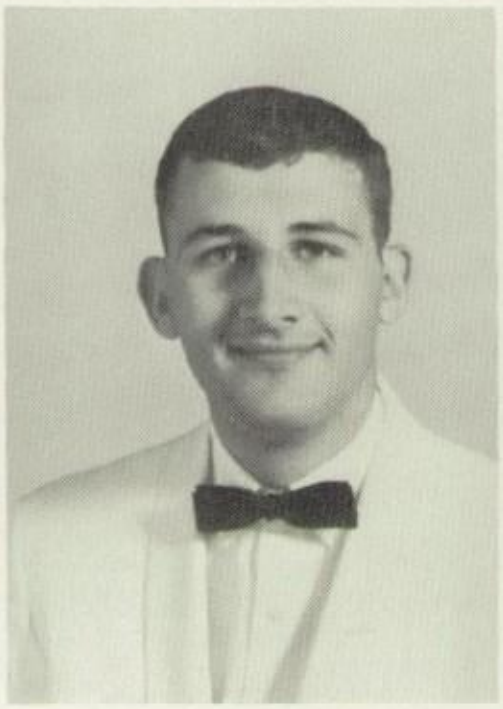
My joys are as deep as the ocean; My troubles as light as the foam.

HAROLD DOUGLAS COX

Set your goal in the stars, but keep your feet on the ground.

THOMAS WILLIAM DRUMWRIGHT III

He who enjoys life is an asset to others.

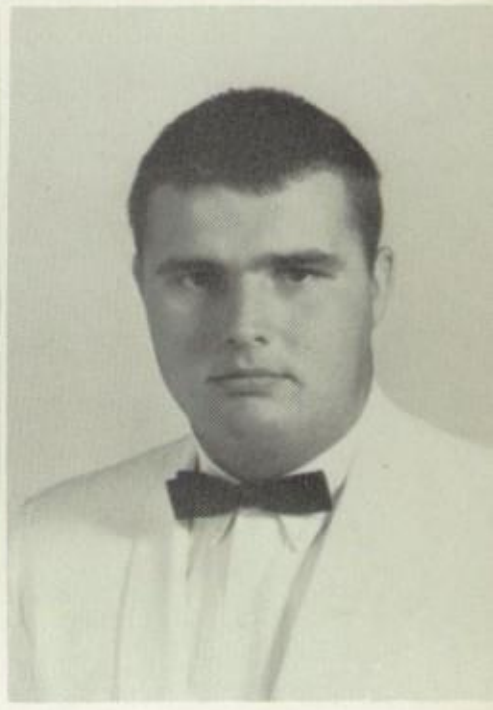


GLORIA PEARL EUBANKS

The best part of beauty is that which no picture can express.

JERRY STEPHEN EULISS

Happiness multiplies as we divide it among others.



Seniors

CAROL JEAN EVANS

Let your life be your arithmetic; joys added, sorrows subtracted, friends multiplied and love undivided.

CECELIA GAIL FAUCETTE

It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends.

JACKIE WAYNE FOUSHEE

Take it easy, have your fun, let the old world flicker on.

GERALD CHARLES GRUBB, JR.

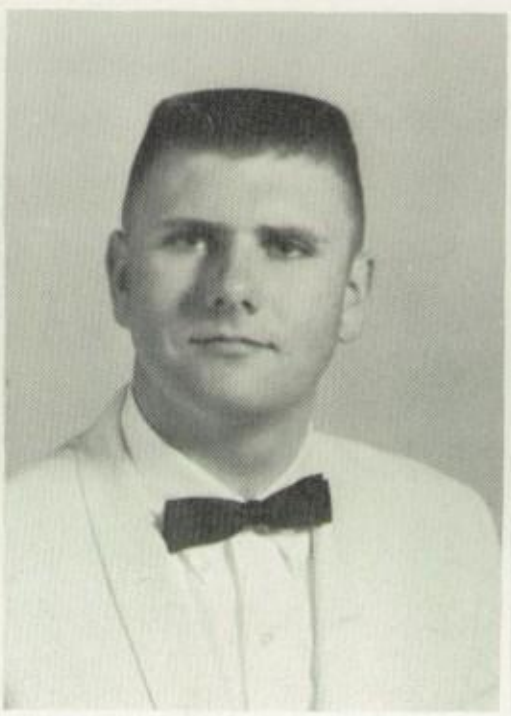
A man's own manner and character is what most becomes him.

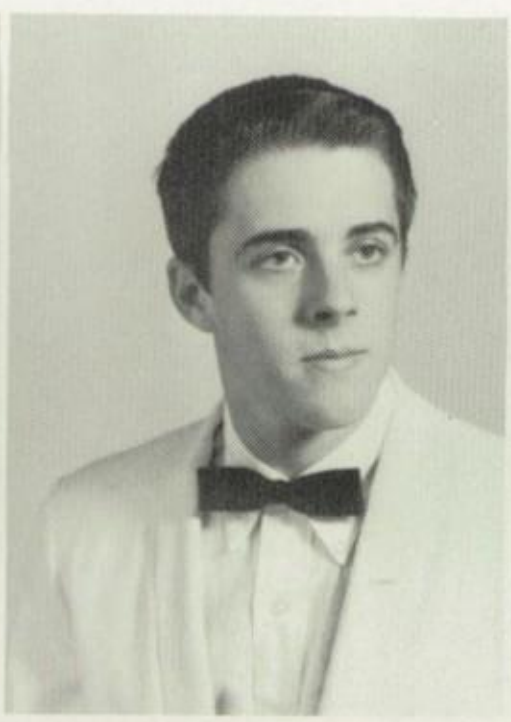
JAMES RALPH GUTHRIE

Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life.

CATHIE MORRIS GUY

There can be no happiness if the things we believe in are different from the things we do.





ROBERT CORTEZ HACKETT

A thousand words will not leave so deep an impression as one deed.

JAMES BURGESS HALLSEY

Whoso would be a man must be a non-conformist.

STEVEN HELMS HARDEN

Success in life is a matter not so much of talent as of concentration and perseverance.

Seniors

CHARLES NORTON HARRINGTON, JR.

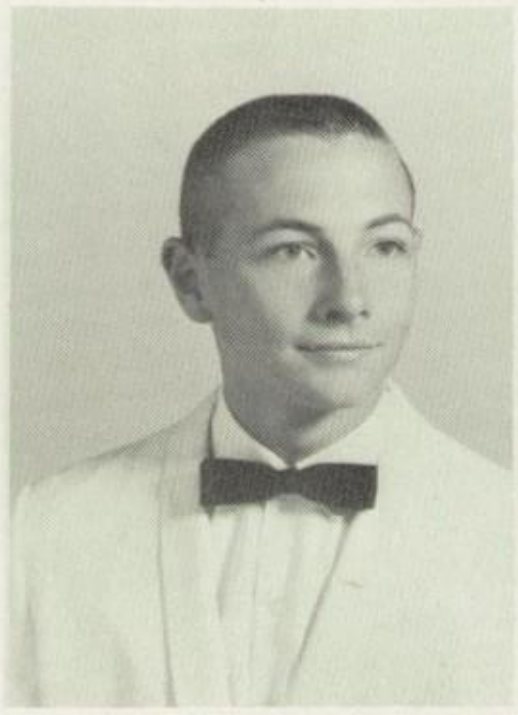
Without nonsense life would be dull.

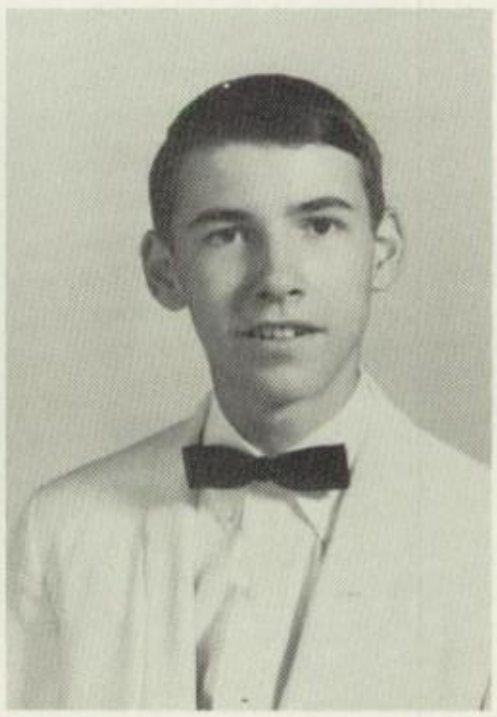
FREDDY WHITSON HARRIS

A man isn't poor if he can still laugh.

JANIS ROCHELLE HAWK

Sweetness is the quality we love in all.





JANICE ELAINE HENDERSON

Let me not strive to be served, but let me strive to serve others, for therein lies true happiness.

ALMA READE HOLT

Happiness is made of little fractions--a smile, a compliment, a cheerful countenance.

JAMES McBRIDE HOLT, JR.

Men work together, whether they work together or apart.

MARTHA ELLEN HOLT

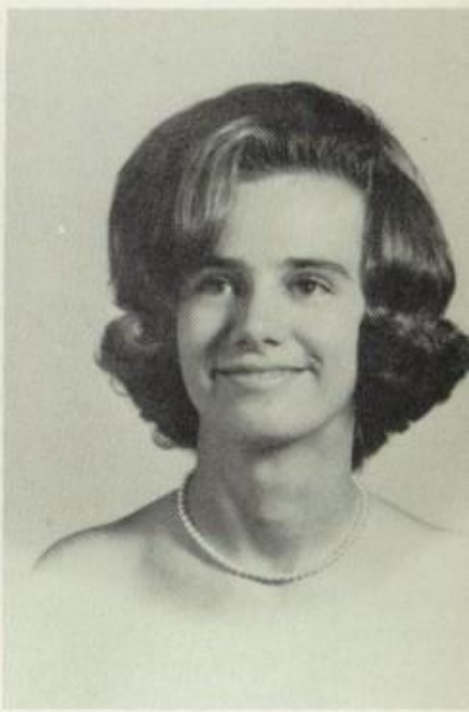
A good laugh is sunshine in a house.

SHEILA LORRAINE HOLT

What is beautiful is good, and who is good will always be beautiful.

EUELL JEAN INGRAM

Sincerity and truth are the basis of every virtue.



Seniors

DEBORAH DARLENE ISLEY

There is no duty we so much underrate as the duty of being happy.

MARTHA HELEN JARRETT

Give what you have. To someone it may be better than you dare to think.

MELBA JANE JARRETT

We imitate only what we believe and admire.

GREGORY DALE JENKINS

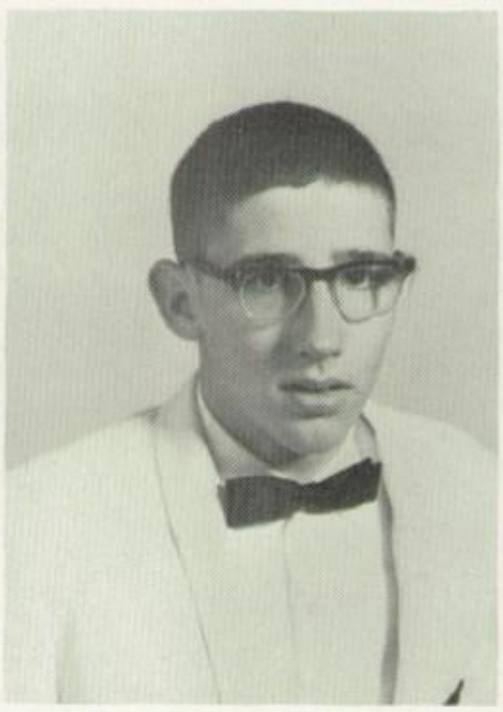
Good humor makes all things tolerable.

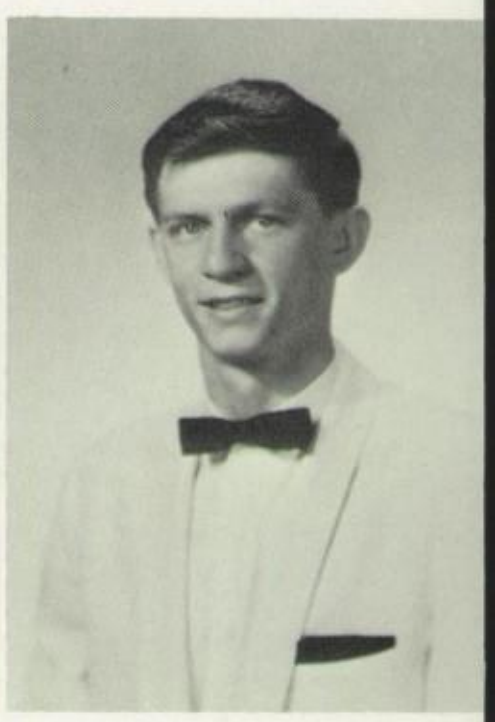
WALTER EARL JOHNSON

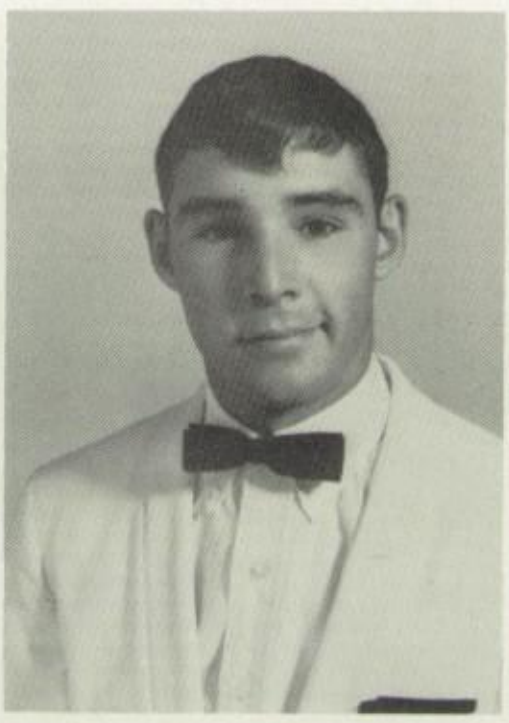
Science is the basis of all true things.

RANDY DeVOY JOHNSON

No wild enthusiast ever yet could rest, till half mankind were like himself possess'd.







LOIS ELAINE JOHNSTON

Success is won by patient endeavor.

MARY ANNE KIRKPATRICK

Good order is the foundation of all good things.

DANNY MARSH LAW

A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market.

Seniors

GEORGE HENRY LEMONS

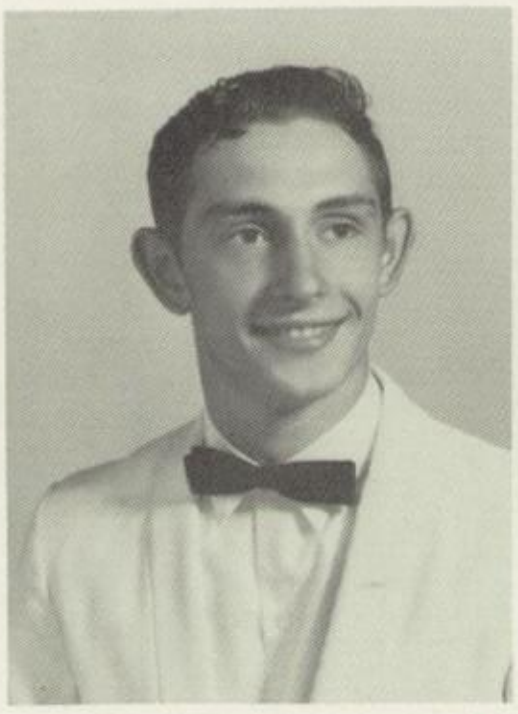
Laugh, and the world laughs with you.

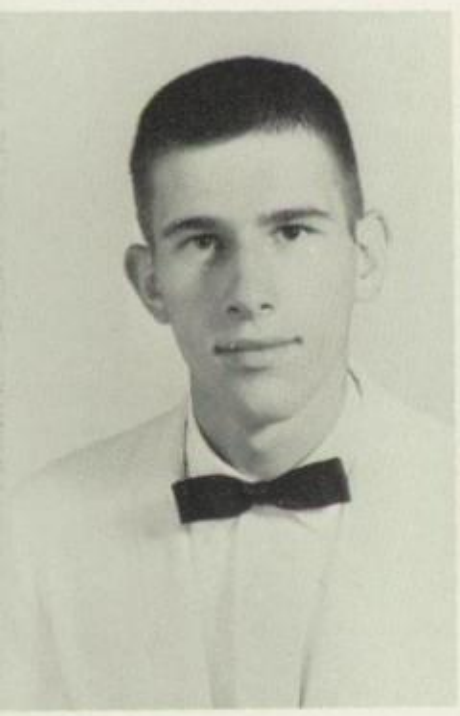
SHEILA ANN LINEBERRY

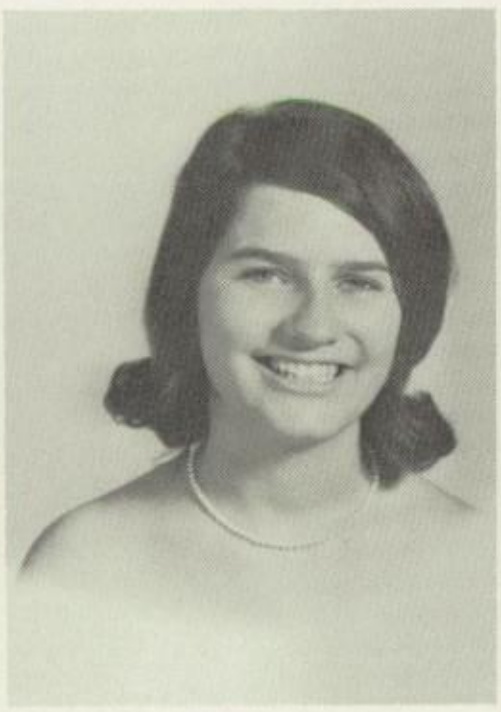
Give not your thoughts away for a penny;
Let them be worth far more than that.

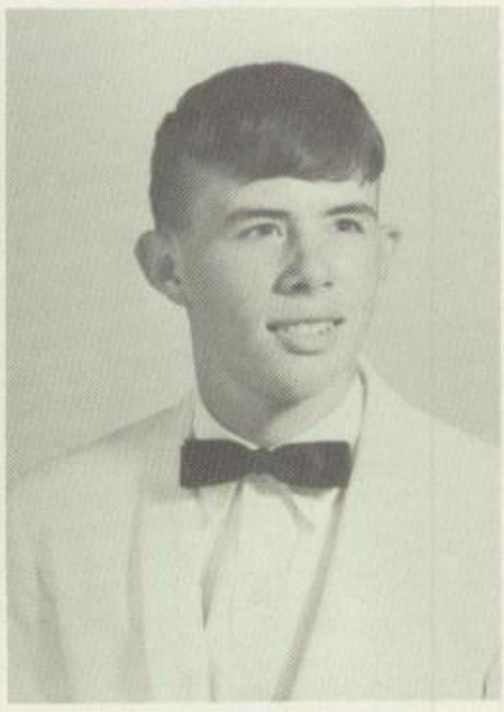
WILLIAM JOSEPH MAGRINI

The reason I never reach the top is because I can't sit down and slide uphill.









WILLARD DUEAL MANN

The world's no better if we worry, life's no better if we hurry.

LINDA FAYE MANSFIELD

Kindness is understood everywhere. A good deed and a smile cost nothing.

WAYNE MARTIN MAYES

Life is a great game; win it.

MARY ANNE McADAMS

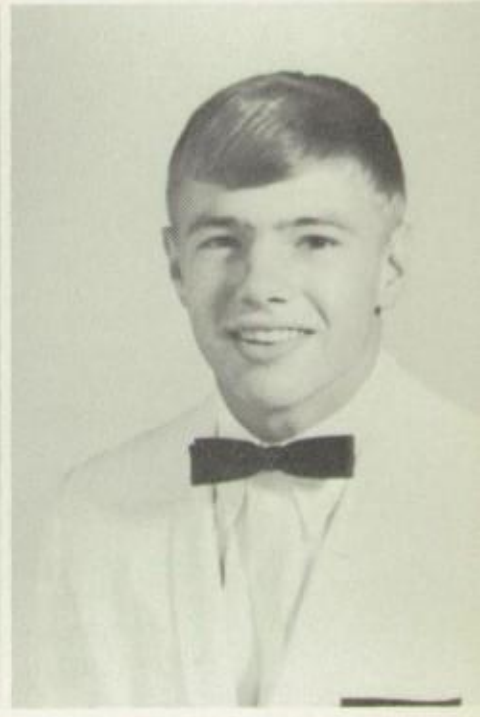
Good humor is one of the best articles of dress one can wear in society.

SHERYL ANN McKEEL

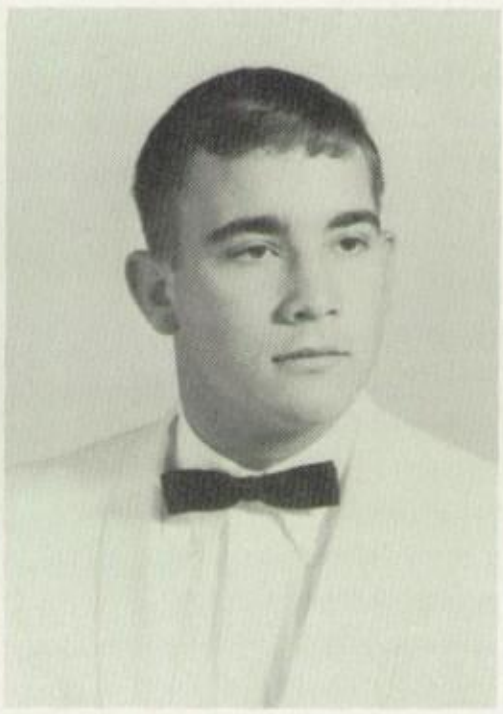
Wasted time can never be regained.

JOHN DONALD McPHERSON

To be great is to do great;
To be more you must do more.



Seniors



ROGER LEE MERCER III

I can only fight for what I love, love what I respect, and respect what I know.

FRANCES ELIZABETH MOSER

Our greatest glory consists not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.

LUTHER WILBERT NASH II

No man is happy who does not think himself so.

JANICE NADINE OXFORD

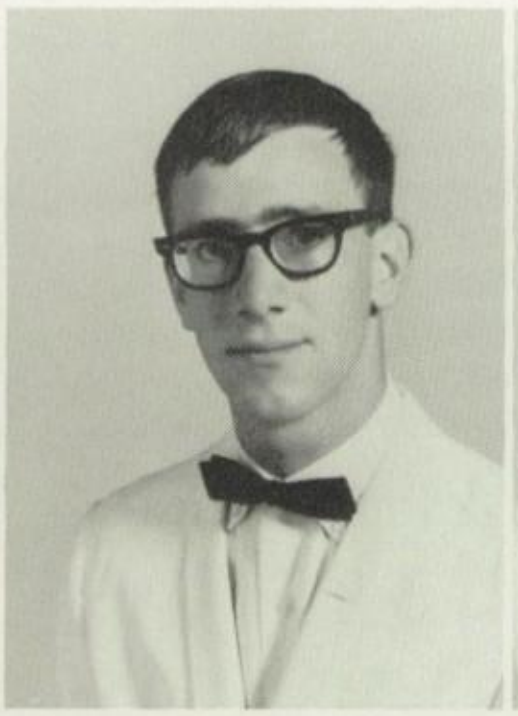
Quality, not quantity, is my measure.

MARIAN REYNOLDS PATTEN

Do not wish to be anything but what you are, and try to be that perfectly.

BRENDA JOYCE PAYLOR

Of all the joys I am to recall, being in love is the best of all.



HENRY EDWIN PEEBLES

The only way to have a friend is to be one.

EDWARD LEE PETERMAN

Be sure you're right; then go ahead.

ROBERT WILLIAM PHILLIPS, JR.

An investment in knowledge pays the best dividends.

Seniors

JOHNNIE IRENE PORTERFIELD

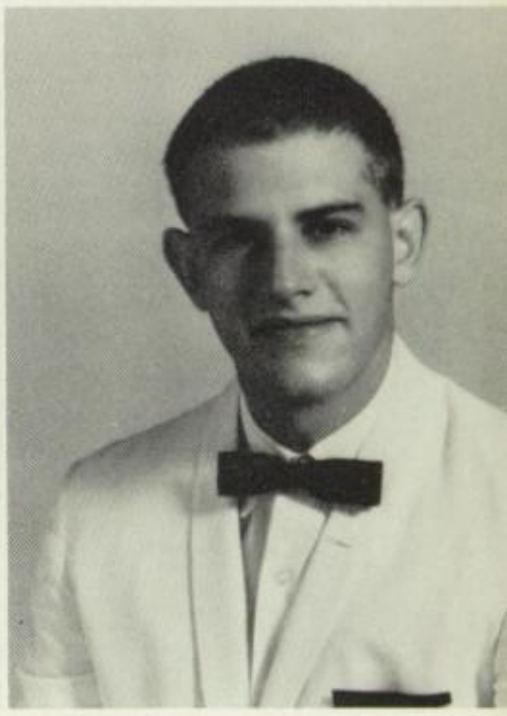
Life is the art of drawing without an eraser.

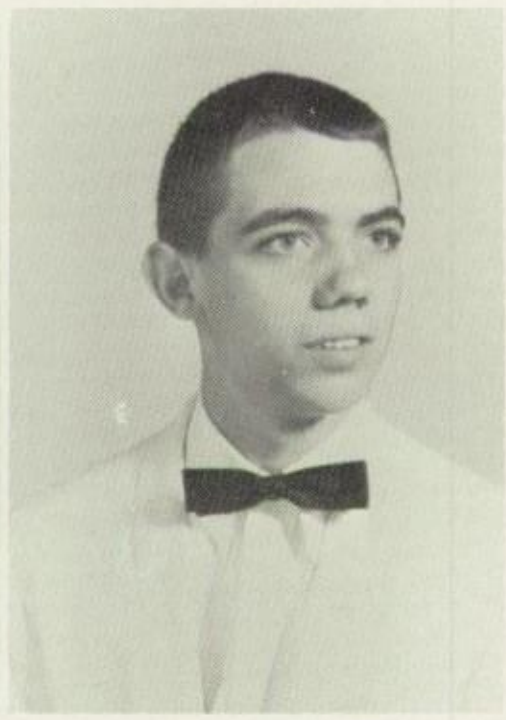
SHELIA DIANNE PULLEY

The keystone upon which is built all loving and all liking is dependability.

WILLIAM ALTON ROBERSON II

Take everyone's advice and do as you please.





JERRY STUART ROGERS

No sensible man watches his feet hit ground. He looks ahead to see what kind of ground they'll hit next.

ROBERT SHERWOOD ROPER

Slow and steady, but ever helpful in the game of life.

LARRY WAYNE SHARPE

Doing good is the only certainly happy action of a man's life.

CHERYL RUSSEL SHOFFNER

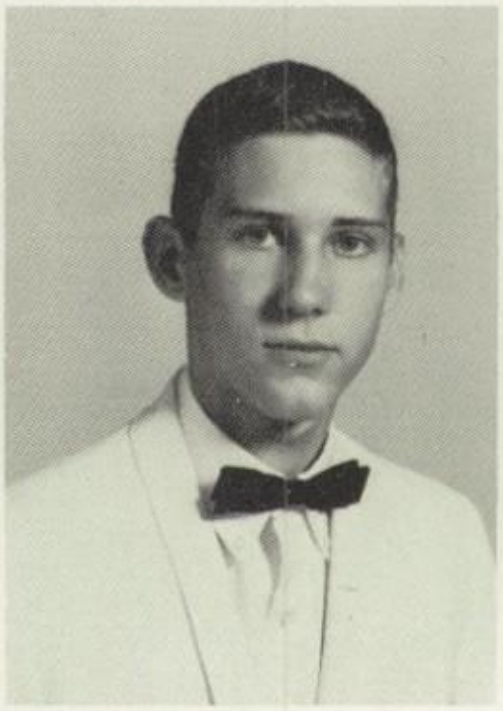
Laugh if you are wise.

DAVID GLEN SHOFFNER

The contented man is never poor.

DIANNA GAYLE SMITH

To be one's self is the key to a pleasing personality.



Seniors

THOMAS STEVEN SMITH

The most wasted day of all is that on which we have not laughed.

BONNIE JEAN THOMAS

Burdens become light when cheerfully borne.

ELAINE DENNY THOMPSON

In sharing, caring, loving, and giving, we reach the true heart of life's living.

GEORGE PATTERSON THOMPSON, JR.

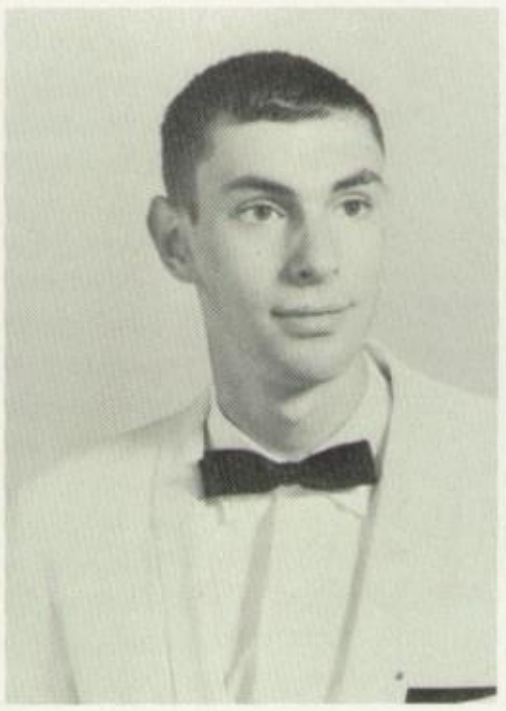
If life be worth living, it's worth enjoying.

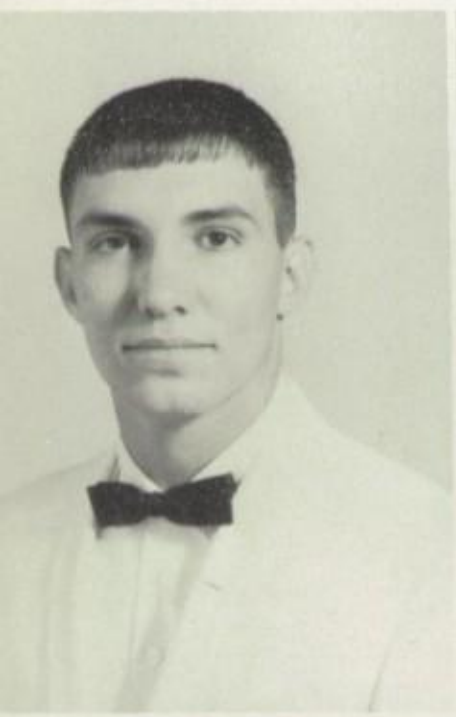
ERIC LYNDEN TROY

In all things, big and small things, be as thorough as you can.

CHERYL LYNN TRUELOVE

All the world's a stage. Act well your part for there the honor lies.





LEON ELWOOD TUTTLE, JR.

One's success or failure lies within himself, and within each man is the power to do great things.

NORMA LYNETTE VAUGHN

You have not fulfilled every duty, unless you have fulfilled that of being pleasant.

VIVIAN LOUISE WADDELL

Always smiling, always neat, always pretty, always sweet.

Seniors

BRENDA GAIL WALKER

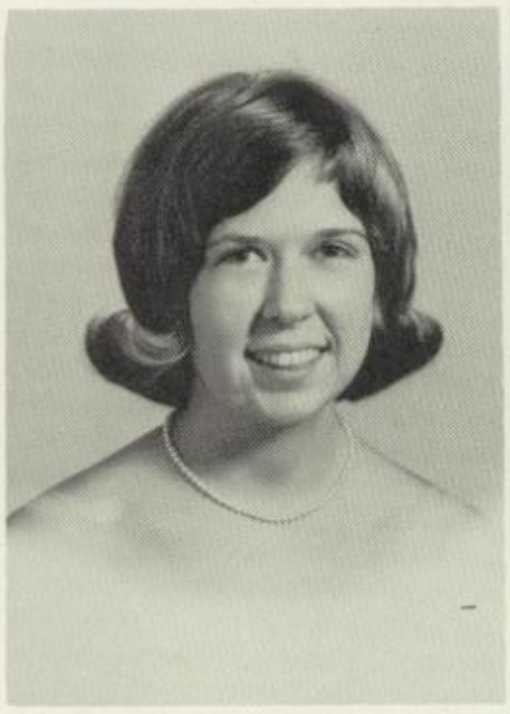
The heart has its reasons that the mind does not know.

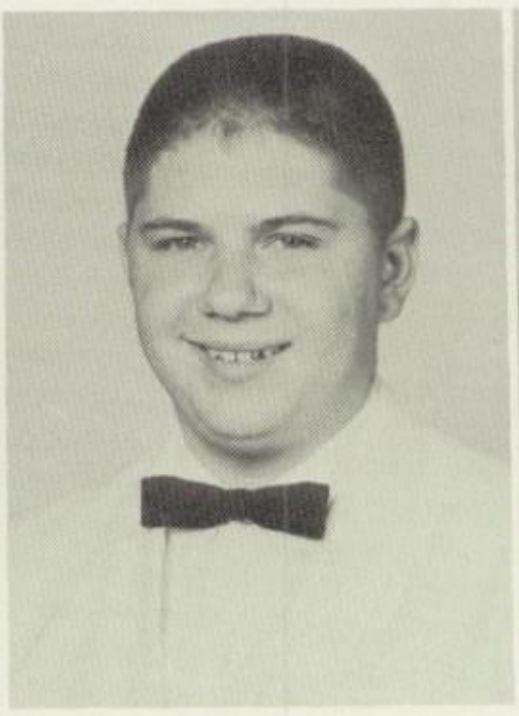
GREGORY VAN WALKER

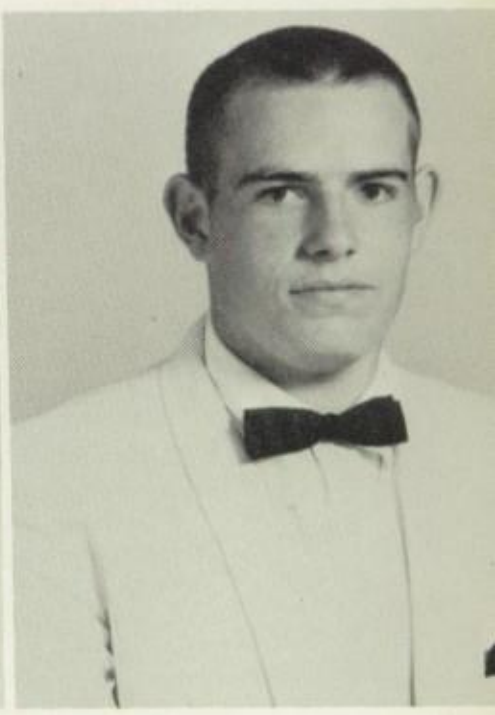
He that can have patience can have what he will.

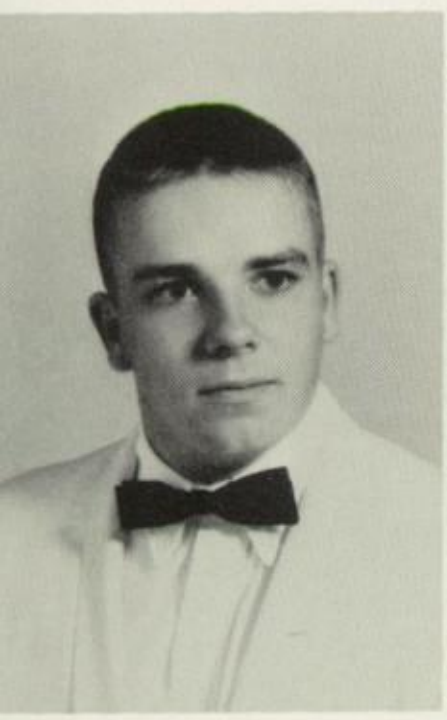
JERRY MITCHELL WALKER

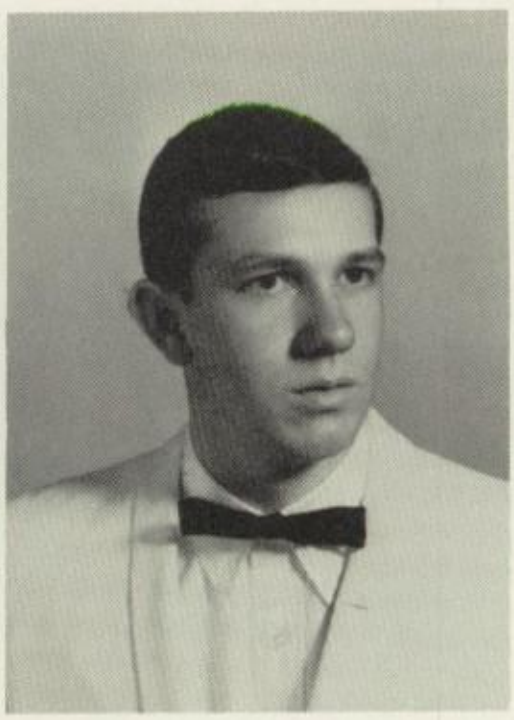
I've learned a lot. I know a thousand things that don't work.











TOMMY DARYL WALTERS

One who is jolly and unselfish is perhaps richer than all others.

MARTHA CAROL WATKINS

One pound of learning requires ten pounds of common sense to apply it.

DONNIE FRED WAUGH

The small courtesies sweeten life; the greater, enrich it.

SHERRON LEE WEST

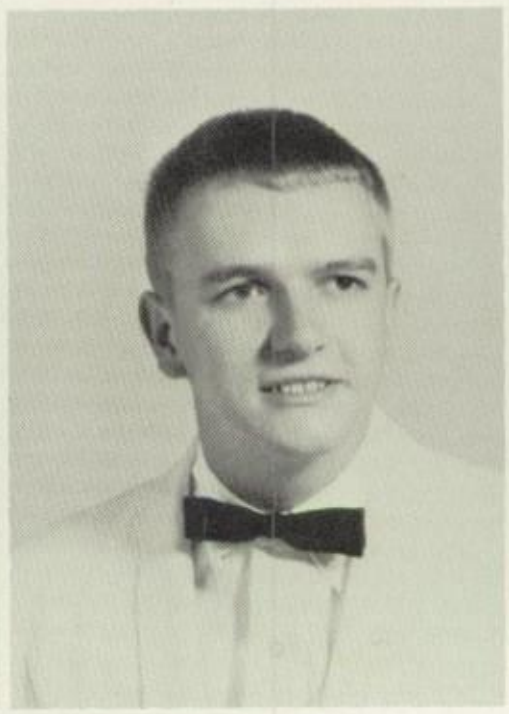
To be doing good is man's most glorious task.

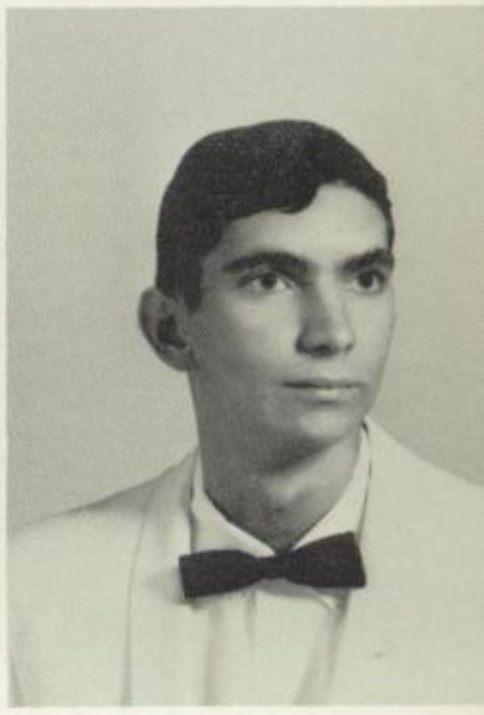
RICHARD EUGENE WHITAKER

An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow.

STAEHLE PARKER WHITSON

Not everyone can do great things; but everyone can do small things a great way.





Seniors

WILLIAM COBLE WIGHTMAN

My life is like a stroll upon the beach,
As near the ocean's edge as I can go.

JACK PLUMMER WILLIAMS, JR.

It is a good idea to take things as they come--if you can handle them that fast!

DENNIS WAYNE WILSON

Nothing great is achieved without some enthusiasm.

RONNIE CLINTON WILSON

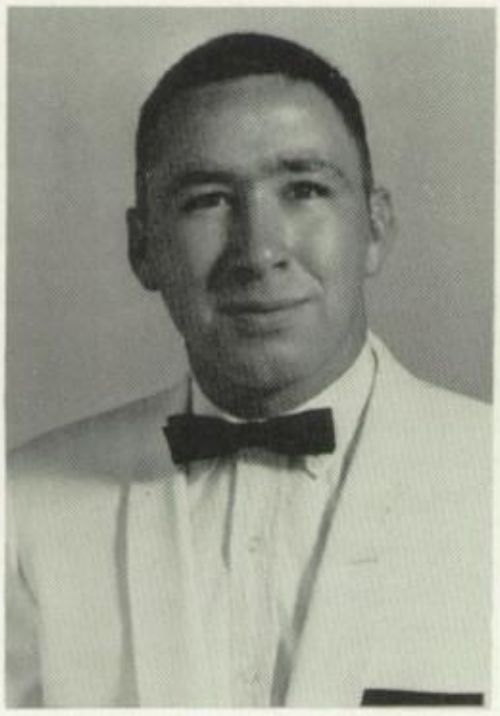
A light heart lives long.

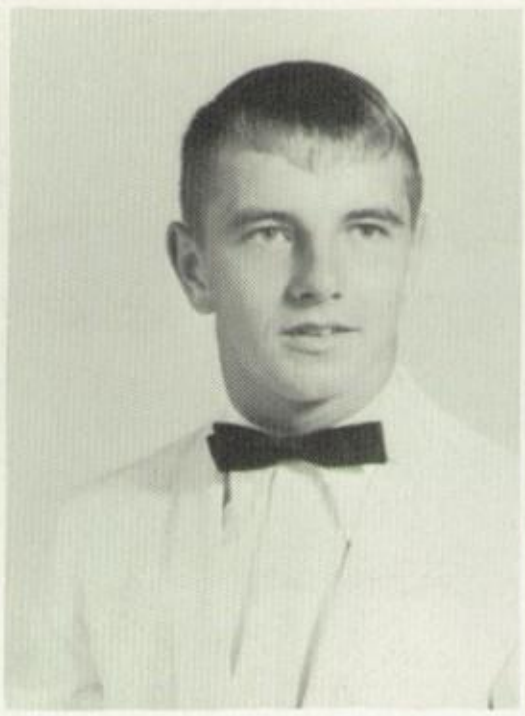
WILLIAM THOMAS WINGFIELD

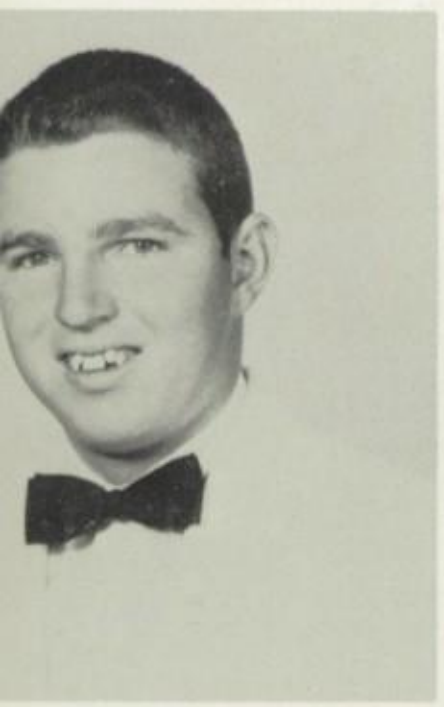
Laughter and fun are always enjoyed with others.

TERRY CHRISTINE WOOD

What makes life worth the living is our giving and forgiving.







ANTHONY LAYTON WRIGHT

There is no substitute for hard work.

Looking back over our junior year, we remember many experiences that will forever remain in our memory.

Among our memories is our class project of selling magazines to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Another highlight of our junior year was the arrival of our long-awaited class rings.

Our class was very proud to have the winning float in the Homecoming Parade.

Turning from our activities as juniors, we now look anxiously forward to our year as seniors and are striving to be the best class ever to graduate from Graham High School.

Although dissecting those frogs in biology wasn't the most pleasant task, we found that hard work is needed to become successful at whatever we attempt.

As sophomores the first recognition was given us for our academic achievements through scholastic letters and for our leadership as we were tapped into the National Honor Society.

We look forward to next year, for we shall no longer be considered under classmen.

We entered the doors of Graham High School this fall, fully aware that we, as Freshmen, had a year of hard but rewarding work ahead of us. Although we were the youngest class, we were by no means the least important. As this year progressed, we adjusted ourselves to high school life and began to feel a sense of belonging.

Our class was very proud to have been represented so well by our girls at Homecoming and in the Miss G.H.S. Pageant, and our boys in the various sports.

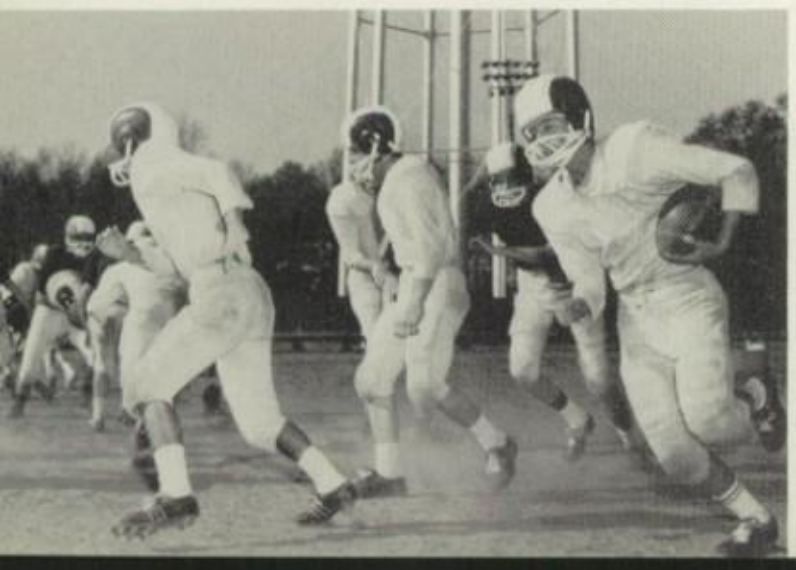
August 15, 1964 brought the beginning of what would prove to be a most successful football season for the Red Devils of Graham High School.



The boys worked very hard in the hot summer workouts and our 8-2-0 record proves it.

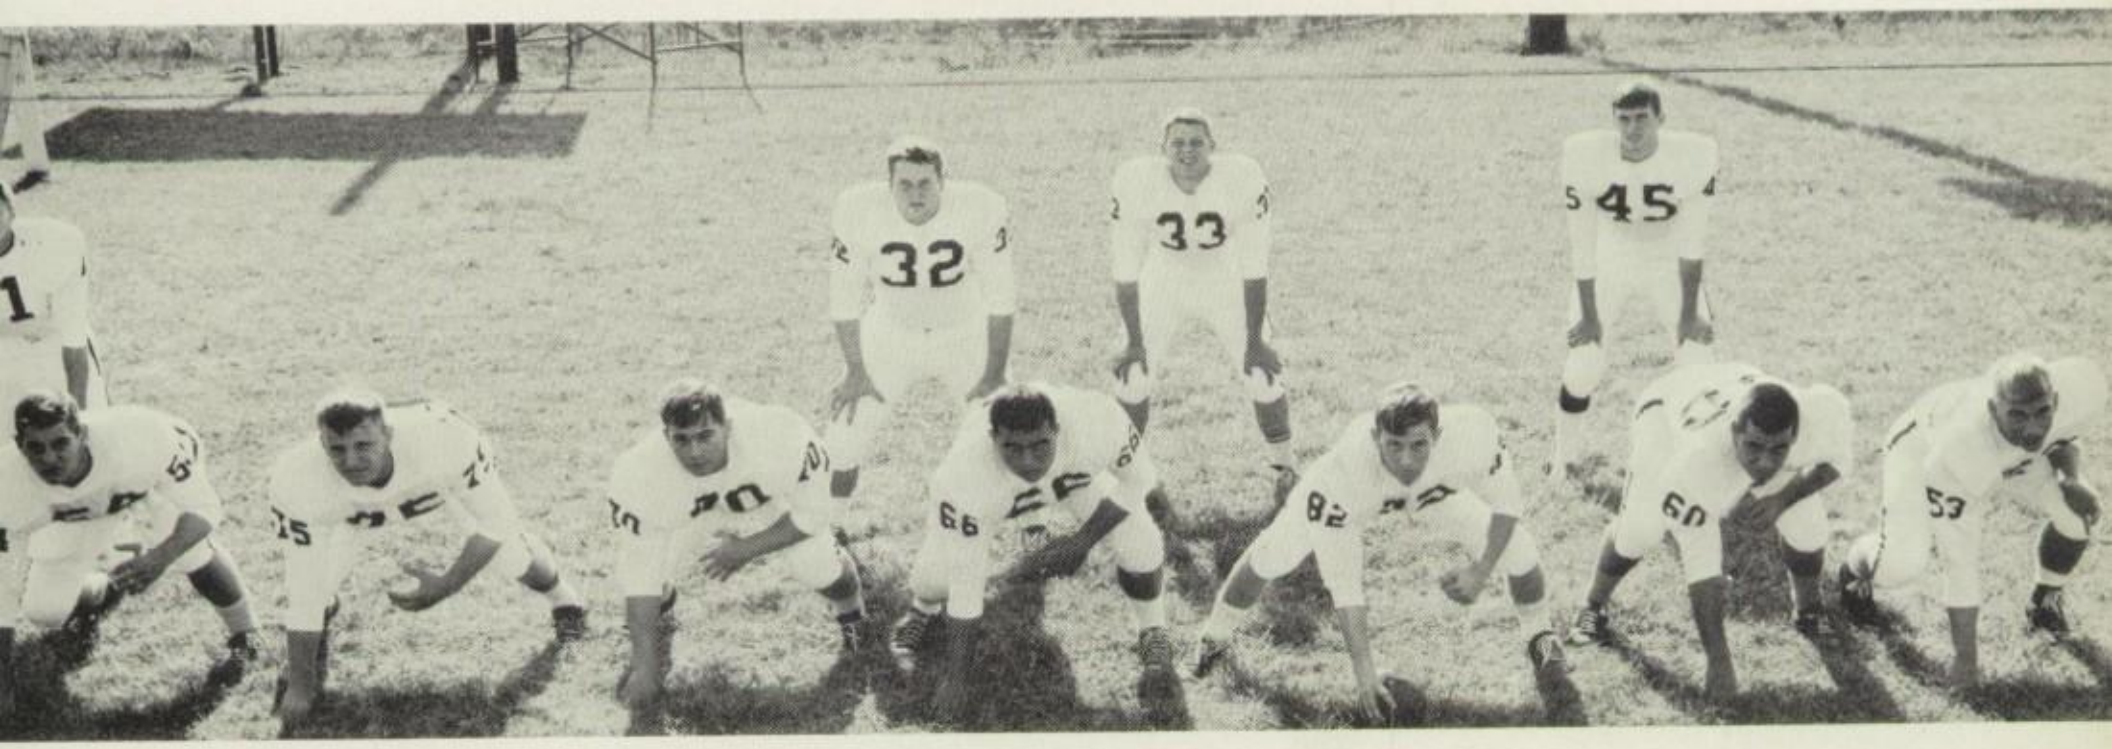
After being termed the "Dark Horse" of the conference, the Red Devils made a fine showing by posting an 8-2-0 record, but lost to Morehead for the conference championship. The Devils, who were led by the running and passing of tailback Billy Wightman, ran up a total of 2,829 yards gained against their opponents, of which 2,173 yards came from rushing and 656 yards from passing.

The stout Red Devil defense consisted of Tom Adcock and Bill Compton at ends, Joe Clark and "Boog" Nash at tackles, Steve Euliss and Tom Walters at guards, Sam Epps and Bob Drumwright at linebackers, Don McPherson and Bill Thacker at halfbacks, and Tom Wingfield at safety. These boys held our opponents to 1,728 yards gained and to no more than an average of one touchdown a game. This hard-hitting defensive team was a big part in the fine record posted by the team.

Starting Lineup



The starting lineup for the 1964 season was linemen Bill Compton, Ray Johnson, "Boog" Nash, Steve Euliss, Bill Thacker, Chris Hancock, and Tommy Adcock. The starting backs were Don McPherson, Steve Smith, Gary Moser, and Billy Wightman.

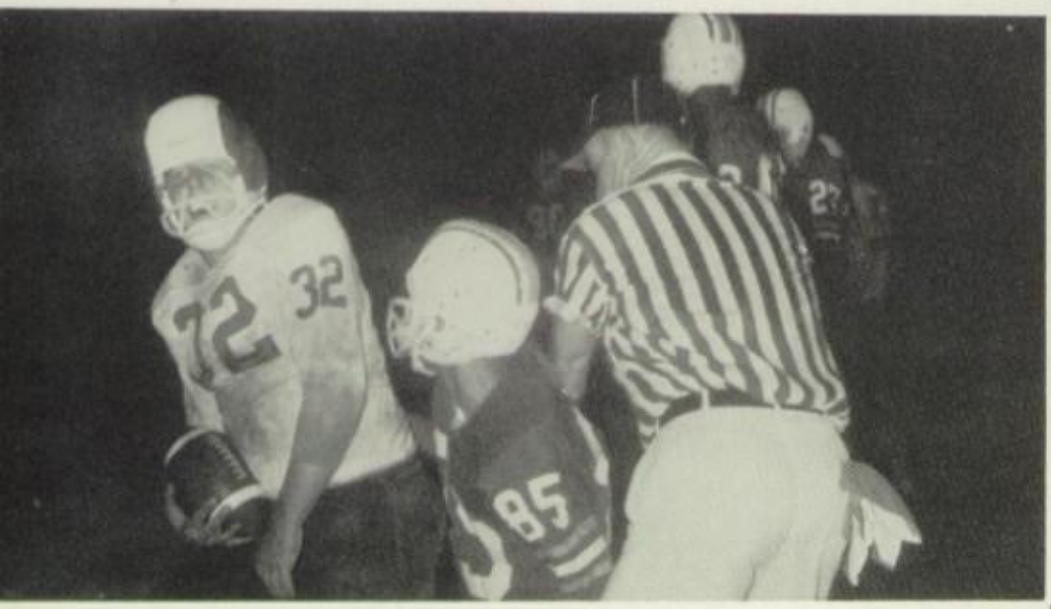
GRAHAM 19 EASTERN ALAMANCE 0

The Red Devils opened their season with a bang by whipping the Eagles of Eastern Alamance 19-0. Bill Wightman passed to Tom Adcock for the first touchdown of the year, then ran two himself on runs of 8 and 6 yards. The Eagles could never get a drive going as the tough Red Devil defense held them to a mere 39 yard total for the night.

WESTERN ALAMANCE 6 GRAHAM 0

The night of September 11 spelled disaster for Graham as the Warriors of Western Alamance held the Devils and came out on top 6-0. Graham could never get a serious drive started and late in the fourth quarter, the Warriors drove 84 yards with quarterback Pickett going over for the score.



GRAHAM 28 BEN L. SMITH 7

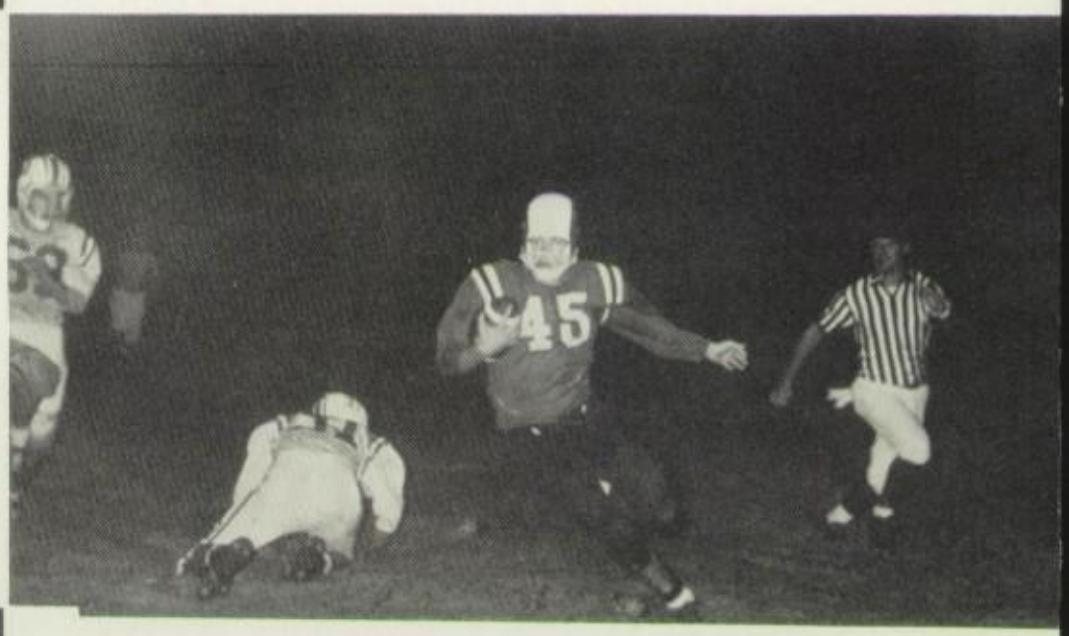
With Steve Smith scoring twice and Bill Wightman and Don McPherson once, the Red Devils recorded a 28-7 upset victory over Ben L. Smith Senior High of Greensboro. Bill scored on a run of 1 yard and Don on a 23 yard run, while Steve scored on two pass plays, one of 17 yards and the other one of 23 yards.

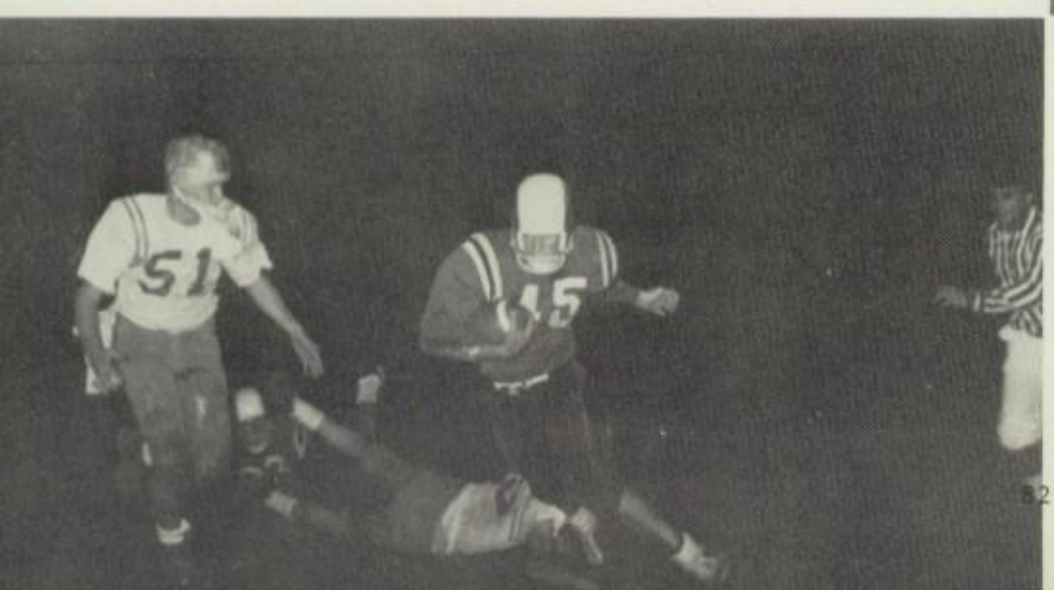
The defense sparkled again by keeping the Golden Eagles' fine running backs bottled up all night.

GRAHAM 32 SOUTHERN ALAMANCE 7

The Confeds had a hard time playing football on September 25. They hardly ever got the ball, while the Devils ran up a total of 345 yards gained. In the first half of play Southern had the ball for nine plays and Graham held the ball for 51.

The Graham scoring was done by Don McPherson, who scored on a pass of 26 yards and an 11 yard run, Bill Wightman on runs of 1 and 11 yards, and Gary Moser on a one yard run.





GRAHAM 40 BARTLETT YANCEY 0

Homecoming was celebrated in fine fashion as the Red Devils stomped the Bartlett Yancey Yellowjackets 40-0. The Devils never fumbled nor punted and also rolled up 464 yards gained.

The scoring was made by Don McPherson on a 1 yard run and a 30 yard pass interception return, Bill Wightman on runs of 3 and 51 yards, Sam Bowland on a 7 yard run, and Dennis Andrews on a 1 yard plunge.

GRAHAM 14 REIDSVILLE 7

Graham pulled this one out of the fire and won this important conference game over the Golden Lions of Reidsville in the last second of play.

Down by 7-0 late in the fourth quarter, Graham drove 60 yards with Bill Wightman going the final 2 yards. Then with 40 seconds left in the game Sam Bowland intercepted a Reidsville pass and Gary Moser heaved a 42 yard bomb to Wightman for the winning score as time ran out.

GRAHAM 14 MT. AIRY 13

They said it couldn't be done, but Graham did it. For the second time in two weeks the Devils won an important conference game in the last few seconds.

Gary Moser scored on a run of 2 yards to put the Devils out in front, but the Granite Bears struck back with two quick touchdowns to make it 13-7. Then with 1:10 left on the clock, Tom Wingfield threw the tying 40 yard pass to Bill Wightman, but it was "Boog" Nash who calmly kicked the PAT for the win.

GRAHAM 26 MADISON- MAYODAN 6

Although a much improved ball club, the Falcons of Madison-Mayodan were no match for the Red Devils, who easily handed M-M their 18th consecutive defeat.

The Devils had another great offensive night by racking up 356 yards gained as Bill Wightman scored three times on runs of 30, 13, and 74 yards, while Gary Moser scored on a 25 yard run.

GRAHAM 26 GIBSONVILLE 12

The starters played this one through midway into the second quarter when the reserves took over.

The Devils netted 6 points on the first play from scrimmage as Bill Wightman scooted 60 yards to the goal line. Wightman scored again on a 27 yard run and Dennis Andrews scored twice on runs of 3 and 12 yards.

MOREHEAD 12 GRAHAM 7

The Red Devils outplayed the Black Panthers of Morehead Senior High for over three quarters, but the Panthers rallied from a 7-0 deficit late in the 4th quarter to win the Western 3A Conference Championship game.

Gary Moser scored for Graham on a 1 yard run and the scoring was closed when "Boog" Nash had kicked his 20th extra point. The defense was led by Joe Clark, who recovered two fumbles, Sam Epps, Bill Thacker, and Bob Drumwright.

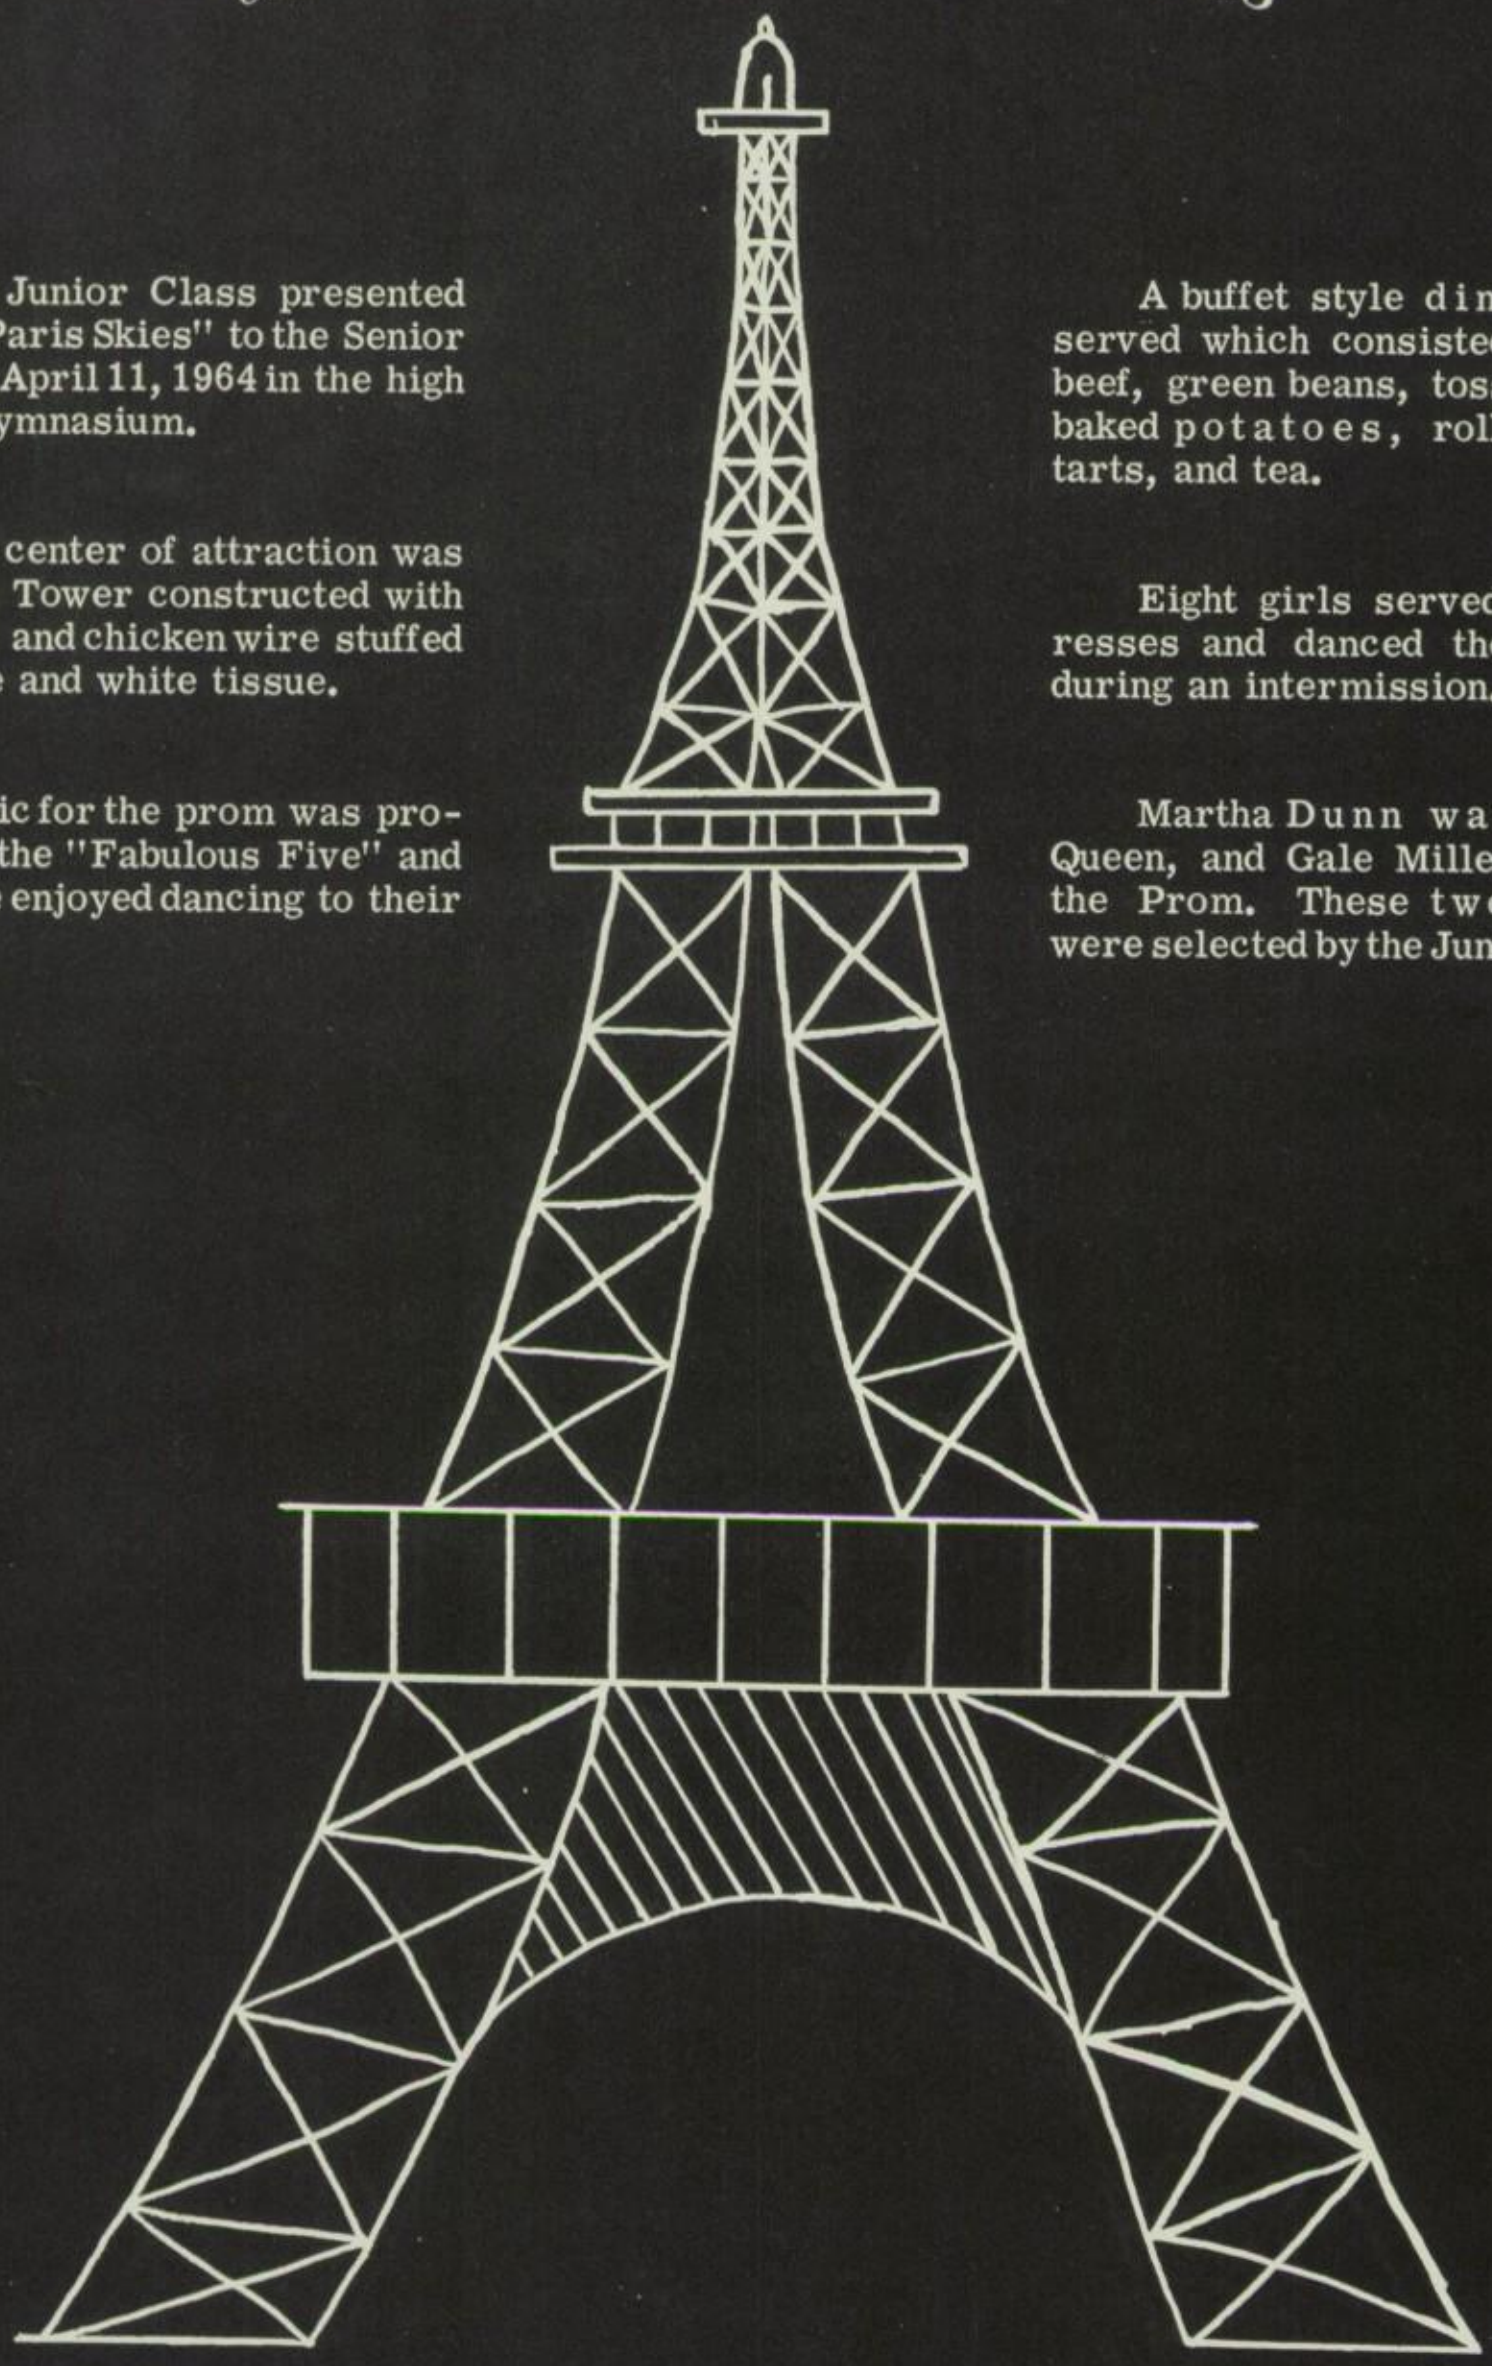
Under Paris Skies



The Junior Class presented "Under Paris Skies" to the Senior Class on April 11, 1964 in the high school gymnasium.

The center of attraction was an Eiffel Tower constructed with plywood, and chicken wire stuffed with blue and white tissue.

Music for the prom was provided by the "Fabulous Five" and everyone enjoyed dancing to their music.

A buffet style dinner was served which consisted of roast beef, green beans, tossed salad, baked potatoes, rolls, cherry tarts, and tea.

Eight girls served as waitresses and danced the can-can during an intermission.

Martha Dunn was chosen Queen, and Gale Miller, King of the Prom. These two seniors were selected by the Junior Class.
